

ZOOM LINK FOR KEYNOTE AND S58 :
<https://uni-bayreuth.zoom.us/j/65134057064?pwd=fda1qO1nIL9pld8nkSsAjRTbzXq9BV.1>

	Room 1 (S62)	Room 2 (S61)	Room 3 (S59)	Room 4 (S58)
September 17	Day 1
08:30-09:30	Registration (RWI Building Foyer)
09:30-09:45	Welcome (Room H24)
09:45-11:00	Keynote 1: Richard Pettigrew (University of Bristol): Autonomy and the Formation of Preferences (Room H24); chair: Guilhem Lecouteux
11:00-11:30	Coffee Break
Parallel Sessions A: 11:30-13:00	Measurement, Replication and Prediction; chair: Sofia Blanco Sequeiros	Welfarism; chair: Paul Hoyningen-Huene	Economic Policy: Development; chair: Alessandra Basso	Online Session A; chair: Patricia Rich
	Microfoundations in measurement and theory, Junyi Zhu	Welfarist Meritocracy, Enrico Mattia Salonia	Assessing Development Projects through the Lens of the Human Development and Capability Approach: How a More Comprehensive Methodological Framework Can Reshape Development Policies, Pietro Ghirlanda	Standardizing mean differences: A cautionary tale from a rational choice perspective, Ina Jäntgen
	When is a replication attempt successful?, Mariusz Maziarz	Welfare Assessments with Incomplete Preferences: Context-Dependent Choices and Plural Identities, Constanze Binder	Construct validity and mechanistic extrapolation in the psychology of poverty, Lari Hokkanen	Rethinking Adam Smith's Philosophy: A New Foundation for Political Economy, Ibtissem Issaoui
	Predictions, Potential Outcomes, and Performativity, Sebastian Zezulka	Preferences: Mentalism, behaviorism and functionalism, Mikael Cozic
13:00-14:30	Lunch Break (provided) (RWI Building Foyer)
13:30-14:30	Journal of Economic Methodology Meeting Registration (Room H24)
Parallel Sessions B: 14:30-16:00	Behavioral Welfare Economics; chair: Murat Bakeev	Economic Policy and Expertise; chair: Edoardo Peruzzi		Online Session B; chair: Guilhem Lecouteux
	A Defence of Preference-Based Approaches to Welfare Evaluations in Public Policy; Roberto Fumagalli	Modeling in Economic Policy: Rethinking Models' Epistemic Limitations, Nadia Ruiz		Algorithms and Autonomy: Liberal Responses to the Preference-Shaping Power of Recommender Systems, Malte Dold
	Social Preferences and Social Welfare in Behavioral Welfare Economics, Jack Vromen	Reality bites: Bringing policy back to philosophy of evidence-informed policy, Sofia Blanco Sequeiros		Precision-Like Mesh: On Economic Measures of Discrimination, Florence Adams
	Why not ends paternalism?, Abrahamson Mans	Who are experts on the sustainability of economic growth?, Teemu Lari		Qualitative Economics: Integrating Qualitative Research Methods into Economic Analysis, Leonardo Conte
16:00-16:30	Coffee Break (RWI Building Foyer)
17:00-19:00	City Tour
20:00-late	Young Scholar Event
September 18	Day 2

08:30-09:30	Registration (RWI Building Foyer)
Parallel Sessions C: 09:30-11:00	New Trends in Game and Social Choice Theory; chair: Annalisa Costella	Model Selection; chair: Donal Khosrowi	Macroeconomics & Econometrics; chair: Luis Mireles-Flores	Online Session C; chair: Roberto Fumagalli
	Manipulation in Collective Decision Mechanism: Solutions from Economics and Computer Science, Bele Wollesen	Model Choice in Economics: Simulation Models, Empirical Evidence and (Normative) Representational Decisions, Anna-Katharina Kothe	Anti-Reductionist Strategies for Macroeconomists, Paul Hoyningen-Huene	Identity, Social Comparison, and Institutional Categorization: A Tripartite Model of Institutional Dynamics, Noriaki Okamoto
	Underdetermination in experimental game theory: the anti-holistic response, Maria Caamano	On the Diversity of Models in Normative Inquiry, Lukas Beck	What is a structural model?, Christopher Clarke	Competing Claims with Uncertainty, Makan Nojournian
	The insufficiencies of game theory: complementary perspectives by Simone Weil, Aviad Heifetz	On the Utility of Models: Bridging the Theoretical and Analytical Sides of Model Selection, Massimo Rusconi	Causal presuppositions in econometrics and the science-policy gap, Luis Mireles-Flores	What does the Trust Game say about Trust?, Nicolas Camilotto
11:00-11:30	Coffee Break (RWI Building Foyer)
Parallel Sessions D: 11:30-13:00	Decision Theory I; chair: Ricardo Crespo	Feminist Approaches and Values in Economics; chair: Constanze Binder	Institutions; chair: Nadia Ruiz	Social Scientific Methods in Economics; chair: Bele Wollesen
	Diversity and strategic beliefs, Milosz Slepewronski	Feminist Political Economy and the Migration Choices of Undocumented Latina Women, Aubrial Harrington	A Bigger Game: The Critiques of Market Design, Ivan Boldyrev	Cost-Benefit Analysis, Incommensurability, and Imprecise Utilities, Malvina Ongaro
	Collective Action Problems, Self-defeating Behaviors, and their Alleged Equivalence, Annalisa Costella	Which values in modern economics? Analytical and methodological strategies for identifying non-epistemic values in economic research, Magdalena Malecka	Why Bloomington is not in Virginia: Contrasting the Social Ontologies of the Ostroms and Buchanan, Massimo Cervesato	Scratching the Surface: The Use of Participatory Methods in the Lab to Uncover Wicked Problems, Massimo Rusconi, Lorenzo Gagliardi
	Psychological narratives in decision theory: what they are and what they are good for, Ivan Moscatti		Rethinking the Rules of the Game: Synthetic Data for Institutional Economics, Petr Specian	Thick Concept, Thin Consensus: Normative Judgments in Estimating Inequality of Opportunity, Moritz Hörl
12:30-14:30	Lunch Break (provided) (RWI Building Foyer)
Parallel Sessions E: 14:30-16:00	New Trends in Economic Methodology; chair: Uskali Mäki	Nudges; chair: Kevin Leportier	Measurement; chair: Christopher Clarke	Online Session E; chair: Aviad Heifetz
	Big M 2.0. The art of war for philosophers of economics, Aleksander Ostapiuk	Co-Designing Nudges: Measuring the Impact of Expert and Citizen Collaboration, Samuel De La Cruz Solal, Guilhem Lecouteux	Revising the Moral Arguments Black Reparations in the US in light of the Economic Arguments, John Davis	Post-Growth and the Lack of Diversity in the Scenario Framework, Rawad El Skaf
	Philosophical Perspectives on Resource Curse: Lessons from Nigeria's Oil Economy, Kamal Tasiu Abdullahi, Muhammad Abdulaziz Muhammad	The Relevance of Internalization for Social Norm Interventions, Tatu Nuotio	From Theory to Practice (and Back Again): Measuring the Value of Life and the Science of Preferences, Yam Maayan	Design principles for the IPCC emission scenario ensemble, Francesco Nappo
		Of the Vices Behind Biases: Reassessing the Contribution of Nudges as Welfare Policy Tools, Daniel Zarama Rojas	Values and Trustworthiness in Economic Inequality Metrics, Alessandra Basso	Original Positions and Decision Theory, Michael Moehler
16:00-16:30	Coffee Break (RWI Building Foyer)
16:30-17:45	Keynote 2: Wendy Carlin (University College London): Civil Society Comes of Age in Economics: Governance Beyond Markets and States (Room H24); chair: Patricia Rich

18:30-19:30	Brewery/Catacombs Tour
19:30-late	Conference Dinner
September 19	Day 3
08:30-09:30	Registration (RWI Building Foyer)
Parallel Sessions F: 09:30-11:00	Social Contract; chair: Moritz Hörl	Computing and AI; chair: Jack Vromen	Workshop: Introduction to Elgar Handbook	Symposium (online and in-person); chair: Massimo Rusconi
	Between economics and philosophy: a reappraisal of the Rawls-Harsanyi debate, Herrade Igersheim	Trust attitudes and the epistemic mechanisms of smartphone addiction, Angela Barnes Rodriguez	Introduction to Elgar Handbook of Teaching Philosophy to Economists, John Davis, Giancarlo Ianulardo, Ricardo Crespo	Model Transfer and Its Challenges in Economics, Murat Bakeev, Catherine Herfeld, Edoardo Peruzzi
	The Economics of Coercion: Kolm's Liberal Social Contract and Public Goods, Kevin Leportier	Like It or Not - Recommender Systems, Welfarism, and Performativity, Donal Khosrowi, Lukas Beck
		What does GPT believe? Experimental elicitation of the 'beliefs' of large language models with uncertain lotteries, Guilhem Lecouteux
11:00-11:30	Coffee Break (RWI Building Foyer)
Parallel Sessions G: 11:30-13:00	Money and Values; chair: Ivan Boldyrev	Decision Theory II; chair: Ivan Moscati	Normativity in Economics; chair: John Davis	Online Session G; chair: Herrade Igersheim
	The Origin of Money: A Methodologically Informed Appraisal of the Debate, Jakob Gschwandtner	Decision Models and Tainting Beliefs, Oyku Ulusoy	On the normative authority of economics, Uskali Mäki	Regret Aversion, Hayden Wilkinson
	Taxing Carbon, Framing Responsibility: Who Values the Environment?, Mathieu Guigourez	Coping with uncertainty, Ricardo Crespo	Scientific objectivity and normative economics: the case of fairness theories, Conrad Heilmann	Conventions and the performativity of economics, Jonas Campos
	Is value a substance? A deconstruction of A. Orléan's institutional approach, Giustino De Michele	When all bets fail (to reveal beliefs): The Problem of Two Perspectives, Vita Kudryavtseva		Majority voting on nudges, Tobias Henschen
13:00-14:00	Lunch Break (provided) (RWI Building Foyer)
14:00-14:45	INEM Plenary (Room H24)
14:45-16:00	Keynote 3: Katherine Furman (University of Liverpool): How to Think about Health Policy Interventions in Contexts of Deep Distrust (Room H24); chair: Magdalena Malecka
16:00-16:30	Coffee and Farewell (RWI Building Foyer)			