TectoPromo IS2 Promoter

Eco-friendly impulse cooler for efficient promotions

Impulse coolers are an effective way to improve sales. Working well in special promotions and in conjunction with branding, this 72 cm wide cooler is especially suited to beverage cans, bottles and other impulse products.

True brand promotion with good product visibility

Viessmann's TectoPromo IS2 Promoter cooler is designed to meet the needs of both retailers and the beverage industry. It is energy efficient, easy to maintain and uses the eco-friendly refrigerant R290 (propane). All four sides of the cooler are transparent, making product and brand visibility a done deal. Castors guarantee effortless movement and relocation in store. Thanks to the use of first class materials and robust construction TectoPromo IS2 Promoter is a long term sales partner to stores large and small.

- Excellent product visibility
- Fantastic branding possibilities
- High volume and product capacity
- Solid construction
- Easy to move on castors
- LED lights and optional sliding lids
- Easy cleaning
- Maintenance-friendly condenser
