New CEO at Viessmann Kältetechnik Deutschland Vertriebs GmbH & Co. KG

- Current CEO Jörg Straßburger ends professional career in mid-July 2022
- On 1st of October, Frank Jansing, until now CEO of voestalpine eifeler, will take over as his successor
- As a hands-on entrepreneur with strong sustainability visions, Jansing will securely position Viessmann Refrigeration Solutions for the future

Jörg Straßburger, CEO of Viessmann Kältetechnik Deutschland Vertriebs GmbH & Co. KG, will end his active professional career in mid-July 2022 and leave the company after eight years. On the first of October, Frank Jansing, previously CEO of the technology and materials specialist voestalpine eifeler, will take over as his successor. As a practice-oriented entrepreneur with strong sustainability visions in refrigeration technology, Jansing will securely position Viessmann Refrigeration Solutions for the future.

Jörg Straßburger began his career at Viessmann in 2014 as CEO of Viessmann Kühlsysteme GmbH in Hof, Germany. After the company was split into the areas of production and sales, Jörg Straßburger took over the position as CEO of the newly founded Viessmann Kältetechnik Deutschland Vertriebs GmbH & Co. KG. From 2014 he was also responsible for the DACH region as Regional Manager. Under Jörg Straßburger's leadership, the company has evolved from a product sales organization to one that supports its customers in commercial refrigeration services throughout the entire life cycle.

Jörg Straßburger will end his active professional career in mid-July 2022

"For me, it has been a great eight years. They were characterized by strong challenges but also by many valuable encounters. A very positive conclusion to my professional career," says Jörg Straßburger.

Best choice for the position as CEO of Viessmann Kältetechnik Deutschland Vertriebs GmbH & Co. KG and Regional Sales Director of the DCH region

Frank Jansing holds a degree in process engineering and has in-depth knowledge of the industry and technology. Most recently, Frank Jansing was CEO of the technology and materials specialist voestalpine eifeler - a group of companies within the globally active Voestalpine AG. He can point to impressive growth successes in corporate leadership as well as strong sustainability visions in refrigeration technology. As a hands-on entrepreneur and visionary who builds bridges between people, he is the ideal successor to Jörg Straßburger and will securely position Viessmann Refrigeration Solutions for the future.

Jörg Straßburger will end his active professional career in mid-July 2022. CSO Udo Laeis will take over the leadership temporarily until Frank Jansing joins the company on the first of October 2022.

Farewell with great gratitude and a warm welcoming

The departure of Jörg Straßburger is associated with great gratitude. "We thank Jörg Straßburger for his strong commitment and dedication to Viessmann over all these years!" states CSO Udo Laeis. "We welcome Frank Jansing to the Viessmann family and wish him great success in his new role!".
