

Internship : Online Brand and Interface Design

d:evolute is a Berlin-based web agency with an international network of partners, customers and friends.

We develop customised software solutions for small and medium-sized businesses, media agencies and advertising agencies.

In order to improve the design of our products and our visual identity, we are looking for an Online Brand & Interface Designer :

Your tasks :

You will support our talented development team in designing the new interface of Software Project Planning. You will also develop our style further and create illustrations and infographics explaining the non-trivial sides of software development.

Your skills :

- You studied interface, communication design or have a similar education.
- You gathered at least 6 months experience in other internships or as freelancer. In other words, you already took part in real-world projects.
- You are deeply in love with illustrations.
- You work well with the Adobe suite and, ideally, you can also deal with open source tools like inkscape.
- You speak fluently English and/or German.

What we offer :

- The opportunity to grow in a flexible and agile company with a flat hierarchy
- A room for your ideas and the chance to have an impact
- The possibility to become a long-term employee
- A standard salary and an attractive office in Kreuzberg

From 31/08/2014, for a duration of 4 months or more Interested ? Drop an e-mail to contact@devolute.org, we will get back to you.
