- Solving dispute enforce our contractual agreements and to establish, exercise or defend legal claims.

For the aforementioned purposes, Siemens Healthineers may process the following categories of personal data:

- Contact information, such as full name, work address, work telephone number, work mobile phone number, work fax number and work email address;
- Payment data, such as data necessary for processing payments and fraud prevention, including credit/debit card numbers, security code numbers and other related billing information;
- Further information necessarily processed in a project or contractual relationship with Siemens Healthineers or voluntarily provided by the Business Partner Contact, such as orders placed, payments made, requests, and project milestones;
- Information collected from publicly available resources, integrity data bases and credit agencies; and
- If legally required for Business Partner compliance screenings: information about relevant and significant litigation or other legal proceedings against Business Partners.

The processing of personal data is necessary to meet the aforementioned purposes including the performance of the respective (contractual) relationship with Business Partners.

If Siemens Healthineers does not collect the respective personal data, the purposes described may not be met by Siemens Healthineers. Communicating with Siemens Healthineers on business matters, concluding contracts with Siemens Healthineers, providing the above mentioned personal data to Siemens Healthineers, or visiting the websites of Siemens Healthineers mean that you are aware of and agree to the collection and use of personal data according to this Siemens Healthineers Business Partner Privacy Notice.

2. Transfer and disclosure of personal data

Siemens Healthineers may transfer personal data to other Siemens Healthineers companies, but only if and to the extent such transfer is strictly required for the purposes mentioned above.

If legally permitted to do so, Siemens Healthineers may transfer personal data to courts, law enforcement authorities, regulators or attorneys if necessary to comply with the law or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

Siemens Healthineers commissions service providers (so-called data processors), such as hosting or IT maintenance service providers, which only act upon instructions of Siemens Healthineers and are contractually bound to act in compliance with applicable data protection law.

Recipients of personal data may possibly be located offshore of China. In such cases, Siemens Healthineers takes measures to implement appropriate and suitable safeguards for the protection of personal data. Siemens Healthineers Siemens Healthineers Siemens Healthineers Siemens Healthineers

3. Retention Periods

Unless explicitly indicated otherwise at the time of the collection of Business Partner Contact's personal data (e.g. within a consent form accepted by Business Partner Contact), we erase personal data if the retention of the personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed and no statutory retention obligations under applicable law (such as tax or commercial law) require us to further retain personal data.

4. Right to withdraw consent

In case a Business Partner Contact declared its consent for the processing of certain personal data by Siemens Healthineers, the Business Partner Contact has the right to withdraw the consent at any time with future effect, i.e. the withdrawal of the consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on the consent before its withdrawal. In case consent is withdrawn, Siemens Healthineers may only further process the personal data where there is another legal ground for the processing.

5. Right of access to and rectification or erasure of personal data, restriction of processing, right to object to processing and right to data portability
