Participation in the competition is governed exclusively by these Conditions of Participation. The competition is in no way connected to the respective platform and is in no way organised or supported by the platform or the owner of the platform.

1) Duration of the competition

The duration of the competition is specified in the respective notification about the competition. Users will be given the opportunity to take part in the competition online within the period specified in the notification.

2) Procedure of the competition

Participation takes place via interaction with the respective message on the platform and with agreement to these Conditions of Participation. Participation is only possible within the participation period. Entries received after the closing date will not be considered in the draw.

Only one submitted registration per participant will be entered into the competition. In the case of participation via multiple platforms/accounts, only one entry will be considered for the prize distribution.

Participation in the competition is free of charge.

3) Eligible participants

Natural persons who are resident in Germany and have reached the age of 18 are eligible to participate. Participation is not restricted to customers of the Organiser and is not dependent on the purchase of goods or services.

If participants are restricted in their legal capacity, the consent of their legal representative is required.

All persons involved in the conception and realisation of the competition are not eligible to participate in the competition. In addition, the Organiser reserves the right to exclude persons from participation at its own discretion if there are justified reasons, for example

(a) in the event of manipulation in connection with access to or implementation of the competition, (b) in the event of breaches of these conditions of participation, (c) in the event of unfair behaviour or (d) in the event of false or misleading information in connection with participation in the competition.

4) Winning, notification and transfer of the prize

The winners will be determined after the closing date in a random draw among all participants.

The winners will be informed promptly via private message and/or email. Each winner must contact ltaa.communication@lhaero.com by email within 1 week. If a winner does not respond within this period, the prize may be transferred to another participant by the Organiser.

The prize will be delivered by post, parcel or, if applicable, e-mail at the Organiser's expense exclusively to the winner or the winner's legal representative. It is not possible to exchange, collect or pay out the prize in cash.

The costs associated with claiming the prize (travelling etc.) shall be borne by the winner.

The profit is taxed at a flat rate in accordance with § 37b EstG.

5) Premature termination of the competition

The Organiser reserves the right to cancel or terminate the competition at any time without prior notice and without giving reasons. The Organiser will make use of this option in particular if the proper running of the competition cannot be guaranteed for technical reasons (e.g. viruses in the computer system, manipulation or errors in the hardware and/or software) or for legal reasons. If such a termination is caused by the behaviour of a participant, the Organiser may demand compensation from this person for any damages incurred.

6) Data protection

Personal data must be provided in order to take part in the competition. The participant assures that the personal details provided by him/her, in particular first name, surname, address and e-mail address, are true and correct.

The Organiser points out that none of the participant's personal data will be passed on to third parties or made available for their use.

All e-mail addresses and the voluntarily provided data of the participants will be recorded and stored exclusively for the purpose of determining the winner. All data will be deleted no later than 30 days after the end of the competition. Participants are entitled to the statutory rights to information, amendment and cancellation. Further information on our data protection regulations can be found here: <https://www.lufthansa-technik.com/en/Data-protection-information-LTAA>

7) Revocation

Participants are free to delete their registration data at any time by cancelling their registration at ltaa.communication@lhaero.com and thus withdraw from participation.

8) Liability

Claims due to possible material and/or legal defects in the prizes donated by the prize sponsors must be asserted exclusively against them.

The Organiser is not liable for the insolvency of a prize sponsor or the consequences of this for the implementation of the competition.
