Statement of Lufthansa Technik AERO Alzey Management Board

As a globally active leading company in the Maintenance, Repair and Overhaul industry (MRO) operating in various business fields and as a part of the Lufthansa Technik AG and the Lufthansa Group, Lufthansa Technik AERO Alzey shares substantial responsibility for lawful behavior and fair competition in the relevant markets. Our goal is sustainable economic success. Compliance with applicable laws forms the basis for all conduct of Lufthansa Technik AERO Alzey employees.

The Lufthansa Compliance Programme provides a binding framework for all Lufthansa employees, therefore also for Lufthansa Technik AERO Alzey employees, and represents the clear and unmistakable commitment of the Management Board to comply with all applicable national and international laws, regulations and guidelines. We are aware that any violation of applicable laws pose an extraordinary risk to Lufthansa Technik AERO Alzey, to Lufthansa Technik, to the Lufthansa Group as a whole and to every one of us as an individual and is therefore unacceptable.

All Lufthansa Technik AERO Alzey employees are called upon to actively participate in implementing the Lufthansa Compliance Programme in their daily work and in their respective areas of responsibility, in order to prevent any harm from any individual and from our company.
