CALL FOR SPEAKERS AND SPONSORS

After two very successful years, the third edition of the #Berlin5GWeek will return in November 2018 parallel to the OpenStack Summit in Berlin. It has become one of the most influential event series for discussing the newest network and software enabling technologies such as Software Defined Networks, Network Function Virtualization, Edge Computing, Industrial IoT, and 5G in the context of various industry verticals. This year the #Berlin5GWeek will feature the 2nd Edge Computing Forum, 2nd Industrial IoT Forum, as well as the 9th FOKUS FUSECO Forum.
